

*Should auld
acquaintance be forgot, and never brought to mind?*

*Should auld
acquaintance
be forgot,
and auld
lang syne?*

250th Anniversary Collection

Robert Burns, the national bard of Scotland was born on the January 25th, 1759. Scotland and all Burns fans the world over, including LibriVox, were celebrating the 250th anniversary of Burns' birthday throughout 2009 and it seemed only proper to record a collection of his poems and songs. This collection also includes works from other poets and writers who have written about Burns.

- 01 - Ode (to Burns) by Robert Tannahill (1774-1810)
- 02 - Robert Burns by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1807-1882)
- 03 - Robert Burns by William Topaz McGonagall (1825-1902)
- 04 - Lachin Y Gair by George Gordon, Lord Byron (1788-1824)
